Season Two!! October, 20, 1997

October Meeting: The second meeting of our second season will be Monday, October 20th at 7:00 pm in the Carpentry Shop at the NS Community College at Leeds Street, Halifax.

The main topic will be turning of hollow forms (Vases, for example). We will show the video, "Hollow Turning" by John Jordan, to be followed by discussion.

We have joined the American Association of Woodturners. The library is now in possession of the last seven issues of the AAW journal. Other new additions to the library include Keith Rowley's book "WoodTurning: A Foundation Course" and some more issues of "Woodturning". As usual, all are available for loan, along with one copy of the new video.

We have a list of books from Taunton press; we can get 20% off list price, if we order five books or more. At the November meeting anyone interested in getting in on a group purchase (or suggesting books for the NWG library) can bring in their lists. Copies of the price list will be available to members.

Aside from woodworking titles, there are also home-renovation books, sewing books and gardening books which may be of interest to NWG members or their family .

Show and Tell: Don't forget to bring in your latest masterpieces, neat jigs or new and unusual tools to share with everyone. We all can, and do, learn from each other's methods, so bring 'em along.

For Sale: Beaver Rockwell model 3400, 12" x 36" with some accessories, $300.00. Call

Peter Merriem, 469 9539 (or see it at the October meeting.)

Racal Airstream Helmets are available. Those who have ordered may pick them up at the October meeting by arranging this with Steve, 826 7431.

The Atlantic Woodworking Show, November 14-16, will also be holding competitions for woodturnings, and miniature woodturnings. Details should be available soon, so get those shavings flying!
